LINKING INTO THE COMMUNITY PROJECT IN FULL SWING

This week we welcomed Prue Leng into our school to work with Mr MacPherson, to teach students from the Garden Club how to plant and look after seedlings.

Students were very keen and interested in learning about strawberries, chillies and herbs. The garden also has carrots, enshallots and lettuces growing. Many thanks to Prue, her mum and Mr Macpherson for their work.
The Deadly Choices Road

Show provided information about the responsible consumption of alcohol and the health dangers of legal and illegal drug use.

Dot Hamilton and Rachel Koster packed up their sewing machine and brought the art of making bunting alive .

I thank all of these community organisations for contributing to our school.

Many thanks everyone. Ms Elliott

GETTING OVER THE LINE

North Burnett

Athletics 2014

On Tuesday 26th August, Ms Hunter and Mrs Kerri Bayles took a team of 8 high school students to represent Eidsvold State School at the North Burnett Athletics Carnival held in Gayndah. Most of these students had a massive day competing, as they participated in most field and track events. Congratulations to Jamie Hartwig, Tianna West, Skye Pope, Jamal Kyle, Jarmbe Law, Rodney Thompson, Ben Blucher and Clinton Kyle for your efforts on the day.

ESS placed 5th overall, considering our small number of students that attended on the day, this is a fantastic achievement.

Congratulations Tianna West for receiving Age Champion for Under 13 girls and qualifying for Wide Bay Athletics. Also, Congratulations to Jarmbe Law and Clinton Kyle who qualified for Wide Bay Athletics. Good luck to Tianna, Clinton & Jarmbe when they represent our District – North Burnett at Gayndah on the 15th & 16th September.

Ms Hunter

ZANE KYLE MAKES IT TO THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Zane Kyle will compete at the State Athletics Championship in Brisbane in few weeks time, in the sport of High Jump. He will spend much of his time between now and then getting ready for the jump of his life, we wish him the very best of luck in his preparation in the led up to the big event. WELL DONE ZANE!
