125TH CENTENARY
10TH, 11TH & 12TH OCTOBER
IT’S HERE !!!!

I very much look forward to welcoming everyone to Eidsvold State School over the weekend to celebrate our 125th Centenary.

Special guests and dignitaries will include the Federal Member for Callide, Jeff Seeney MP, (whose wife taught at Eidsvold State School), local Indigenous Elders, CR Paul Francis, CR Faye Whelan, and CR Don Waugh, Mayor of the North Burnett Shire Council, local business owners and community members.

The official opening will commence at 10am Saturday with a welcome to our school by myself, Welcome to Country by Indigenous Liaison Officer Doris Chapman and a special speech by past student and past P&C President Terry (Tub) Haupt.

Those attending can enjoy a cooked breakfast for a gold coin donation from 8am. Barney Blucher and Indigenous Housing will be brewing up a storm so guests can enjoy a hot cup of tea or coffee.

Senior students will be conducting a cake stall in the midst of a flurry of activities, stalls and country fare including the sale of Eidsvold State School memorabilia.
